By Johnson

Substituted for: House Bill No. 1254

By Sargent

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 35, Chapter 5; Title 66 and Title 67, Chapter 5, relative to delinquent property taxes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-5-109, is amended by adding the following language to the end of the section:

However, this requirement shall not be applicable to sales of parcels pursuant to title 67, chapter 5.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-5-112(b), is amended by adding the following language to the end of the subsection:

This subsection (b) shall not be applicable to sales of parcels pursuant to title 67, chapter 5.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 35, Chapter 5, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

The requirements of §§ 35-5-101(e), 35-5-104(a)(4) and (5), and 35-5-104(b) shall not be applicable to sales of parcels pursuant to title 67, chapter 5.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2003(g)(4), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting instead the following:

(4) A judgment of personal liability for unpaid personal property taxes may be enforced as any other judgment, through garnishment, execution, or otherwise, and may also be recorded as a lien in one (1) or more offices of registers of deeds. Any judgment recorded pursuant to this subdivision (g)(4) shall be subject to the same requirements and attributes of judgment liens, including durability, priority, and renewal, and shall thereafter no longer be subject to the statute of limitation established by this chapter for unpaid property taxes. However, the rates of penalty and interest shall continue as established by this chapter, and upon recording of such judgment, the tax entity shall retain the alternative of enforcing its tax lien against the assessed personal property according to the priority and procedures set forth in this chapter.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2101(b), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting instead the following:

(b) In addition to the lien on property, property taxes shall become and remain a personal debt of the property owner or property owners as of January 1 of the tax year, and, when delinquent, may be collected by suit as any other personal debt. In any lawsuit for collection of property taxes, the same penalties and attorney fees shall apply as set forth in § 67-5-2410 for suits to enforce liens for property taxes. The claim for the debt and the claim for enforcement of the lien may be joined in the same complaint.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2103(b), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting instead the following:

(b) All interested persons shall be deemed to have constructive notice of the proceedings by virtue of the seizure of the parcel occurring upon the filing of a complaint for the purpose of enforcement of the first lien. However, interested persons who do not have an obligation to pay the taxes on the parcel, such as lienholders, need not be joined as parties nor served with process so long as a diligent effort to give actual notice of the proceedings, as defined in § 67-5-2502(c)(1), is made to such persons.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2103, is further amended by adding the following as new subsections:

(d) The general assembly finds and determines that:

(1) The collection of property taxes is an essential and necessary function of counties and municipal corporations in the state;

(2) This chapter provides for a specific and comprehensive scheme for the collection of delinquent property taxes;

(3) This chapter is intended to be procedural and remedial in application and, unless a contrary intent is expressed in an act amending this chapter, such amendments are also intended to be procedural and remedial in application;

(4) The economy of the state has evolved from one primarily based upon the agrarian use of real property to an economy based more upon the improvement of real property by the construction of residential, commercial, and industrial structures thereon. Such improvements require the investments of significant funds and resources;

(5) A purpose of this chapter is to promote and encourage the development of improvements upon real estate that have been conveyed pursuant to this chapter through the enforcement of tax liens;

(6) The certainty and finality of the titles to real estate that have been conveyed pursuant to this chapter through the enforcement of tax liens is a necessary prerequisite to the development of improvements thereon; and

(7) Statutes that are not consistent with the statutory scheme for the collection of delinquent property taxes set out in this chapter should not be applicable to tax proceedings, tax liens, or the enforcement of such tax liens.

(e) This chapter shall be construed liberally in favor of the certainty and finality of property titles transferred pursuant to this chapter.

(f) Title 21, chapter 1, part 4, is not applicable to tax proceedings, tax liens, or the enforcement of such tax liens.

(g) Sections 29-6-161–29-6-165 are not applicable to tax proceedings, tax liens, or the enforcement of such tax liens.

(h) Title 67, chapter 1, part 18, is not applicable to property tax proceedings, property tax liens, or the enforcement of such property tax liens.

(i) Other statutes that are not consistent with the statutory scheme for the collection of delinquent property taxes set out in this chapter shall not be applicable to tax proceedings, tax liens, or the enforcement of such tax liens.

(j) All interested persons, as defined in this chapter, are charged with the knowledge that the parcel is subject to property taxes, which are required to be paid to the trustee or collector on an annual basis, and which taxes become a first lien on the parcel from January 1 of each year. All interested persons have an affirmative duty to inquire as to the amounts of such taxes and their payment status. Under no circumstances shall a claim that the interested party did not receive a tax bill or any pre-lawsuit notice constitute a valid defense to the enforcement of the lien, the personal debt for the taxes, or the amount of taxes owed, including penalty, interest, cost, and fees.

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2414, is amended by inserting the following language after the words "courts of chancery":

, except as modified in this chapter or as they may be inconsistent with the statutory scheme for the collection of delinquent property taxes set out in this chapter

SECTION 9. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2502(a)(3), is amended by inserting the following language after the words "Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure":

Process and notices delivered by registered or certified mail or by an alternative delivery service, with a return receipt, to an interested party's registered agent at the agent's address or to the address of the interested party, each as shown on the corporate records of a state secretary of state or other officer responsible for maintaining such records, shall be sufficient to bind the interested party as to notices and service of process.

SECTION 11. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2502(a), is further amended by adding the following new subdivision:

(4) A person, who is either expressly or impliedly authorized by another person to receive mail on behalf of the other person, is authorized to sign a receipt on behalf of the other person accepting registered or certified mail or correspondence delivered by an alternative delivery service, containing either a summons, complaint, or summary of the proceeding or a notice that has been or is to be filed in a tax proceeding. In every tax proceeding, the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that a person who signed such a receipt for a different person and was, in fact, at that time expressly prohibited in writing from accepting mail for the second person, shall be upon the person challenging the sufficiency of the service or notice.

SECTION 12. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2503, is amended by designating the existing language as subsection (b) and by inserting the following language as a new subsection (a):

(a) An order confirming the sale of a parcel shall confer the right to possession of the parcel to the purchaser effective upon entry of the order. On such date, the risk of loss shall transfer from the original owner to the purchaser. In the event of a loss occurring after the sale and before the order confirming the sale is entered, the court shall, on motion of the purchaser filed before the order confirming the sale becomes final, determine whether any portion of the purchaser's bid should be refunded to the purchaser.

SECTION 13. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2504(d)(4), is amended by deleting the language "2702" and substituting instead the language "2701".

(f) Any person successfully challenging the validity of a tax sale of the person's interest in a parcel shall also be responsible to the person purchasing the property at the tax sale and the purchaser's successors in interest, for any increase in the value of the parcel, including any improvements thereto, from the date of the entry of the order confirming the sale until the entry of a court order declaring the tax sale invalid as to the challenger. In the alternative, the challenger shall be responsible to the person purchasing the property at the tax sale and the purchaser's successors in interest, for all amounts expended by the purchaser or the purchaser's successors as set out in § 67-5-2701(b) and (e), if such amount is in excess of the increased value of the parcel. The purchaser and successors shall have a lien upon the parcel to secure the payment of the amount determined by the court to be due.

(g) An order confirming the sale of a parcel is voidable and may be voided by the court after a determination of the merits of the grounds for the action as set out in this chapter and any defenses raised.

(h) For the purposes of this chapter, a motion filed pursuant to Rule 60.02 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other or successor rule of similar effect, challenging the validity of a tax sale and any independent action for a similar purpose, shall be considered an action to invalidate the sale of a tax title.

SECTION 16. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2507(b)(9), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting instead the following:

The interest shall be at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum, which shall begin to accrue on the date the purchaser pays the purchase price to the clerk and continuing until the motion to redeem is filed.

SECTION 19. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2701(d), is amended by deleting the last sentence and substituting instead the following:

If no response is timely filed, the court shall determine whether the redemption has been properly made, and if so, shall cause an order to be entered requiring the proposed redeemer to pay additional interest at the rate set forth in subsection (b), accruing from the date the motion to redeem was filed until the date of such payment.

SECTION 20. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2701(e)(4), is amended by deleting the language "judicial or administrative order" and substituting instead the language "judicial or administrative order or other official notice".

SECTION 21. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2701(e)(6), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting instead the following:

(6) Additional interest at the rate set out in subsection (b), accruing from the date the motion to redeem was filed until the date the purchaser's response was filed. If the court determines that the purchaser has not delayed consideration of the motion to redeem and that any response filed by the purchaser for additional funds was based on a reasonable expectation that the expenditures of the purchaser were reimbursable pursuant to this section, then the court may require the proposed redeemer to also pay additional interest at the same rate, accruing from the date the purchaser's response was filed until the date of such payment.

SECTION 22. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2701(f), is amended by deleting the language "If the court determines that additional funds are owing by the proposed redeemer, the same shall be paid" and substituting instead the language "Any additional funds ordered to be paid by the proposed redeemer under this section shall be paid".

SECTION 24. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2701(n), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting instead the following:

(n) Upon entry of an order of the court declaring that the redemption is complete, title to the parcel shall be divested out of the purchaser, and the clerk shall promptly refund the purchase money and pay all sums due to the purchaser under this section. The interests of the taxpayer and other interested parties, or their successors in interest, shall be restored to that state which existed as of the date of entry of the order confirming the sale. Any lienholder who redeems the parcel may thereafter proceed to foreclose upon the parcel or otherwise enforce such lien.

SECTION 25. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2702(a), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting instead the following:

(a) Following entry of the order of confirmation of sale, any interested person, as defined in this chapter, may file a motion with the court requesting disbursement of any excess sale proceeds pursuant to this section.

SECTION 26. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-5-2702(c)(5), is amended by deleting the subdivision and substituting instead the following:

(5) Any remaining excess proceeds shall be subject to the Uniform Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act, compiled in title 66, chapter 29, part 1. A motion for excess proceeds may be filed in the court in which the proceeding is pending until such time as the funds are actually forwarded to the state pursuant to the Uniform Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act. For the purposes of § 66-29-110, the presumption of abandonment shall not arise until the final determination of all filed motions for redemption and excess proceeds or one (1) year following the expiration of the redemption period for that parcel, whichever is later.
